In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. May the praise of Allah, in the highest of assemblies, and His peace, safety and security, both in this world and the next, be on Muhammad (ﷺ), the best of mankind and the seal of the Prophets and Messengers.

The Prophetic sayings, actions and approvals contained in this booklet represent a good selection of the important matters necessary for every Muslim in their daily life.

It is hoped that if we implement these practices daily, doing so sincerely for the pleasure of Allah, we will have fulfilled the two conditions for the acceptability of acts of worship, namely: (i) Al-Ikhlaas (sincerity) and (ii) Al-Mutaaba’ah [adherence to the way of Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ)]. In this way, the true believer has hope of achieving the greatest success, Al-Jannah. O Allah! We ask of You Al-Jannah and seek refuge in you from An-Naar!

As I sat with the translator of this book,
Aboo Ismaa’eel, reviewing this work in the library of a Da’wah centre in the city of Doha, Qatar, it brought back memories of those days when we sat with Aboo Safwaan, the translator of a similar work, Hisn Al-Muslim, in the library of the Prophet’s Masjid in Al-Madeenah An-Nabaweyyah, reviewing similar issues.

I do not think any of the brothers involved in that work imagined the acclaim it would achieve.

However, success is from Allah and we hope that He will grant equal success to this work, make it a benefit to all those who read it and reward all those who have had anything to do with its realisation.

Indeed! He, the Mighty and the Majestic, is Generous and Able to do all things.

A WORD FROM THE TRANSLATOR

All praise is for Allah, Lord of the worlds. May the Salaah and Salaam of Allah be on the final Prophet, Muhammad (ﷺ) his family, Companions and all those who follow them in righteousness, until the Day of Judgement.

Is it not amazing that in the course of a normal day, many of us are capable of practicing more than 1,000 Sunan? Surely, in clinging to the Sunnah is safety and security, as Imam Maalik said:

The Sunnah is like the Ark of Noah—whenever embarks on it reaches salvation and whoever refuses is drowned.

Before you is a short booklet containing statements and actions of the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) that are performed in a typical day - how many of these are part of our daily lives?

This work is the English-language translation of the Arabic booklet, More Than 1,000 Sunan Every Day & Night, complied by Shaykh Khalid Husaynaan. He is a contemporary student of knowledge of our time who is preoccupied with reviving and following the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ).

There are a few issues readers should be aware of. Firstly, all footnotes have been added by me and were not part of the original booklet.

Secondly, the order of some points has been changed from the original Arabic work. In all cases, however care has been exercised to ensure that the original intent and meaning has not been lost. Thirdly, all Arabic terms that are italicized have been defined in the Glossary Of Terms at the end. Finally, a clarification on the meaning of the title - the original Arabic booklet did not specifically mention 1,000 separate Sunnah; rather, the intent was that by performing the Sunnah mentioned, with the frequency advised in the Ahaadeeth, one can end up fulfilling, during a single day and night, more than 1,000 Sunan.

No human effort is free from error and so I ask Allah, the Most Merciful, to forgive me for any inadvertent mistakes within this booklet.
Readers are encouraged to contact us if they notice any errors, whether in translation, grammar, use of sources or points discussed.

I ask Him, the Most High, by His beautiful Names and Attributes, that He guides us to the truth and that He purifies our intentions and gives me and those who participated in the translating and publishing of this book, whether in editing, checking, formatting or designing, a bountiful reward for striving in His way. May Allah make this of benefit for us in this Life and the Next.

The transliteration system used in this book, is based on the one created by Dr. Bilal Philips. This system was preferred over others due to the ease with which English-speakers could understand it.

However, a few clarifying comments may be of assistance. Firstly, the Arabic definite article is written variously as ‘Al’ or within the first letter of the following word, when pronunciation requires this, e.g. Al-Rahmaan is written and pronounced Ar-Rahmaan.

Secondly, ‘Shaddah’ (written : ), is represented by doubled consonants. Finally, ‘Taa Marbootah’ ( : ) is represented by ‘H’ (e.g. Salaah). Readers should note, however, that in a construct phrase, the ‘Taa Marbootah’ acquires a ‘T’ sound (e.g. Soorat Al-Baqarah, not Soorah Al-Baqarah).

AUTHOR'S INTRODUCTION

All praise is due to Allah, the Most Merciful, the All-forgiving, the Most Generous, the All-Powerful, the Turner of hearts and sight, the Knower of the seen and the unseen. I continuously praise Him in the evening and the morning.

And I testify that Muhammad (ﷺ) is His chosen Messenger - may the peace and blessings of Allah be on him and on his family, his wives and Companions, all of whom are deserving of exaltation and reverence; a praise which is as everlasting as the day and the night.

To proceed: The most important thing that a Muslim can attend to and take care of in his daily life is acting according to the Sunnah of the Messenger (ﷺ) - whether it is the Sunnah of his Harakaat or Sakanaat the Sunnah of his actions - until the person organises his life in accordance to the Sunnah of the Messenger (ﷺ), from the morning to the evening.

Dhun-Nun Al-Masri said:
From the signs of one’s love for Allah, is following His beloved Prophet’s (ﷺ) actions, manners, commands and recommendations.

Allah (ﷻ) says:

"قُلُ إن كَانَ كُنْتُ مُحْيٌّ اللَّهُ مَاتَىَوْقَ مُحْيِكَمُ اللَّهُ وَيَفْرَحُ لَكُمُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ غُفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ"

"Say: ‘if you really love Allah then follow me and Allah will love you and forgive your sins. And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.’"

(Aal-Imraan, 3:31)

Hasan Al-Basri said:

The sign of their love (for Allah) is in their adherence to the Sunnah of His Prophet (ﷺ).

The rank of the believer is measured by his following of the Messenger (ﷺ) – he is higher and more exalted with Allah according to the extent of his practicing of the Sunnah.

For this reason I compiled this brief treatise – to revive the Sunnah of the Prophet (ﷺ) in the affairs of the Muslims; whether it is in their daily lives, worshipping, sleeping, eating and drinking, dealings with people, in their purification, entering and leaving of their homes, dressing and everything remaining of actions pertaining to Harakaat and Sakanaat.

It is interesting to note that if one of us lost some money, how concerned and worried we would be and how much effort we would exert in trying to find it. But how many Sunan have we lost in our lives? Does this sadden us? Have we strived to revive them in our lives?

One of the problems we suffer from is that we have begun to value and admire the dinar and dirham more than the Sunnah. If people were told that whoever observed a Sunnah from the Sunan of the Prophet (ﷺ) would receive a certain amount of money, then you would certainly find them wanting to and striving to observe the Sunnah in all of their affairs, from the morning to the evening.

Why? Only because they would gain some money for every Sunnah practised.
How will this wealth benefit us when we are placed in our graves and the earth’s dust is poured on us?

Allah (ﷻ) says:

"Nay, you prefer the life of this world although the Hereafter is better and more lasting."

(Al-‘Alaa, 87:16-17)

The Sunan mentioned in this booklet are those things for which the one performing them is rewarded, while not being penalized for leaving them. In addition, they are those things that are repeated in the day and night and are therefore within the capacity and ability of everyone to perform.

I found that it is possible for every person, if they strove to observe these daily Sunan, to perform no less than a thousand Sunan daily, covering all aspects of their lives.

This little booklet is noting more than clarification of the easiest way to implement these Sunan. If the Muslim sought to observe a thousand Sunan in the day and night, this would be approximately thirty thousand Sunan in a month.

Look at the person who is ignorant of these Sunan or who knows them but does not act by them: how much rank and reward does he forfeit for himself? Indeed he is truly deprived.

From the benefits of adhering to the Sunnah are:

\(\square\) To reach the level of love – Love of Allah (ﷻ) for his believing slave.

\(\square\) It is a means to compensate for any deficiency in the obligatory actions.

\(\square\) It is a protection from falling into innovation.

\(\square\) It indicates the exaltation of those things that represent the religion of Allah.\(^{[1]}\)

By Allah, O Ummah of Islam, revive the Sunan of your Messenger (ﷺ) in all aspects of your lives, for the Sunnah is evidence of your complete love for the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and a sign of your sincerity in following him.

\(^{[1]}\) To exalt, in this sense means to adhere to, or comply with something.
1. Wipe the effects of sleep from the face with your hands:
Imaam An-Nawawee and Ibn Hajar stated this wiping to be desirable based on the following:
When the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) woke up, he would sit up and rub away the effects of sleep from his face with his hand.¹

2. Say the supplication for waking up:
الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الْحَمِيدِ الْكَاتِبِ مَا أَمْثِلُ بِهِ وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُورُ
All praise is for Allah who gave us life after death (sleep) and to Him is the resurrection.²

3. Use a Siwaak:
When the Prophet (ﷺ) woke up from the night (sleep), he used to clean his mouth with a Siwaak.³

4. Snuff water:
When one of you wakes up from sleep, then snuff water three times. For indeed, Shaytaan spends the night in the upper part of his nose.

5. Wash both hands three times:

When one of you wakes up from sleep, he must not dip his hand into a utensil until he washes it three times...
ENTRING AND LEAVING THE TOILET

1. Enter with the left foot and leave with the right.\(^1\)
2. Supplicate when entering the toilet:

   "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْخُبُثِ وَالْخَبَايثِ"

   \(O\) Allah, I seek refuge in You from Al-Khubthi and Al-Khabaith.\(^6\)
3. Supplicate when leaving:

   "غَفِرْ لَنَا"

   \(I\) ask You (Allah) for forgiveness.\(^7\)

People use the bathroom many times during the day and night. If they observe these Sunan for entering and leaving every time they go, they will fulfill two Sunan for entering and two Sunan for leaving.

Al-khubth and Al-Khabaaith - These are male and female devils.[1] In order to be protected by Allah from their evil, one should seek refuge from them when entering the toilet. The toilet is one of their places of abode.

[1] There two opinions as to the meaning of Al-khubthi and Al-khaba'ith. The first is that it means, all evil and evildoers and the second is that it means, male and female devils. The Shaykh follows the latter opinion.
WUDOO'

1. Begin with At-Tasmiyah:

\text{بِسْمِ الله́}

In the Name of Allah.\(^1\)

2. Wash both hands three times at the start of Wudoo'.

3. Rinse the mouth and snuff water into the nose before washing the face.

4. Expel water from the nose using the left hand:

He (ﷺ) washed his hands three times, then rinsed his mouth, snuffed water and blew it out.\(^2\) Then he washed his face three times.

\(^1\) This is based on the Hadeeth of Aboo Hurayrah (ﷺ). "There is no prayer for the person who has not performed Wudoo' and there is no Wudoo' for the one who does not mention the Name of Allah."

There is a difference of opinion amongst the scholars regarding this Hadeeth. Shaykh Al-Albaanee has mentioned the scholars who have declared this Hadeeth as good or authentic in Irwaat Al-Ghaleel, Volume 1, Hadeeth 81.

\(^2\) The use of the left hand was not explicitly mentioned in this Hadeeth, but there is a narration of Ad-Daarimee, 'Abd Khayr said, '... we were
5. Be thorough in rinsing the mouth and snuffing water, as mentioned in the Hadeeth:

,,and be thorough in snuffing water unless you are fasting.

The meaning of being thorough in rinsing the mouth is to pass the water around to all parts of the mouth. The meaning of being thorough in snuffing water is to snuff the water to the uppermost part of the nose.

sitting, while looking towards 'Alee (ﷺ) as he was performing Wudoo'. He entered a handful of water into his mouth with his right hand and washed his mouth and nose and he then expelled the water from his nose with his left hand. He did this three times and then said, 'Whoever wants to see the way of purification of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), then this is his purification'.

Shaykh Al-Albaanee said that this Hadeeth has an authentic chain of narrators in his notes on Al-Mishkaat. It is worth noting that this follows the same principle mentioned in footnote 2 in the previous Chapter. Also, refer to the reference of Zaad Al-Ma‘nad and by Ibn Al-Qayyim mentioned in Hadeeth reference number 9 at the end of the booklet.
6. Rinse the mouth and place water of the nose for snuffing with the same handful of water:

Then he (ﷺ) put his hand (in the water) and rinsed his mouth and snuffed up water (for cleaning the nose) from the palm of one hand...

Note that the same handful of water was used—he (ﷺ) did not separate between the two action by using one handful for the first action and another for the second.

7. Siwaak and its position with regard to rinsing the mouth, from the Hadeeth:

Had it not been that I might cause hardship to my Ummah, I would have ordered them to use a Siwaak with every Wudu?1

8. Run the fingers through a thick beard when washing the face.

The Prophet (ﷺ) ran his fingers through his beard when performing Wudu’.13

9. Wipe the head.

The way of wiping the head is to start from the forehead until the nape of the
As for what is obligatory of wiping the head, then it is wiping the whole of the head in any manner, from the front to the back and to the front again.

.. and the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) wiped his head with his two hands from the front to the back and then to the front again...

10. Run water through the fingers and toes:

Perform Wudoo' properly and run water through the fingers and toes.

11. Begin with the right hand and foot:

The Prophet (ﷺ) preferred to begin with the right when wearing his sandals (shoes), combing his hair and in purification (Wudoo').

12. Increase washing from one to three times, when washing the face, arms and feet.

13. Pronounce the Shahahadah upon completion:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ

I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah and I bear witness than Muhammad (ﷺ) is His Slave and Messenger.

The benefit of its pronunciation is that, .. the eight doors of Paradise will be opened for him and he can enter from whichever one of them he desires. ¹⁸

14. Perform Wudoo' at home:
Whoever purifies (i.e. performs Wudoo') in his house and then walk to one of the Houses of Allah (i.e. the Masjid) to perform an obligation of Allah (i.e. one of every two steps, a sin is removed and with the other, his level is raised (in Paradise). ¹⁹

15. Dash - this is to rub water over the body parts with the hand during Wudoo'.²⁰

16. Economies in the use of water:
The Prophet (ﷺ) used to perform ablution with a Mudd²¹ of water.

17. Exceed the area of what is obligatory when washing the hands and feet: When Aboo Hurayrah (ﷺ) performed his ¹¹ See: Glossary of Terms, for an explanation of this word.

Wudoo', he washed his hand up to his upper arm (i.e. Up to his elbow and just beyond it) and then said, 'This is the way I saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) perform Wudoo'...

18. Perform two Rak'ah after completing Wudoo':

Whoever performs Wudoo' in way that I perform it and then prays two Rak'ah of prayer and does not think of anything else (unrelated to the prayer) during it, his past sins will be forgiven.23

In another Hadeeth it was mentioned:

... Paradise would be made obligatory for him.24

A muslim performs Wudoo' many times during the day and night. Some people perform it five times and others perform it more, depending on whether they pray additional optional prayers, such as Salaah Ad-Duhaa or Qiyaam Al-Layl.

Benefits of observing these Sunan in Wudoo':

☐ The person will fall under the category of people in his (ﷺ) saying:
Whoever performs ablution well, the sins leave his body even from under his fingernails.\textsuperscript{25}

\textbf{The Prophet (ﷺ) also said:}

There is no one amongst you who performs Wudoo' well and then performs two Rak'ah of prayer with his heart and face (i.e. with Al-Khushoo';), except that Paradise will be made obligatory for him and he will be forgiven. \textsuperscript{26}

\textbf{General words of advice from Imaam An Nawawee:}

Indeed, a person obtains this level (of Al-Khushoo') by striving against his own self (i.e. his lowly desires) and against the whispering of Shaytaan - repulsing them from himself such that he is fully preoccupied with this striving, without losing focus even for the blink of an eye. Hence, he is safeguarded from Shaytaan due to his striving and emptying his heart of everything that is harmful to it.
USING A SIWAAK

A Siwaak can be used on numerous occasions:

1. For every prayer, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:
   Had it not been that I might cause hardship to my people, I would have ordered you to use a Siwaak for every prayer.\(^{27}\)

   The Muslim may use a Siwaak many times during the night and day - for the five obligatory prayers, Ar-Rawaatib Sunnah, prayers of Ad-Duhaa, Al-Witr etc.

2. When entering the house:
   When the Prophet (ﷺ) entered his home, he began by using a Siwaak.\(^{28}\)

3. When reciting the Qur'an.
4. When the smell of the mouth changes.
5. When waking up.\(^{29}\)
6. When performing Wudoo':
   Siwaak is a purifier for the mouth and pleasing to the Lord.\(^{30}\)

The benefits from implementing this Sunnah:
The Pleasure of Allah (ﷺ) is on His slave,
It is a purification of the mouth.
Modern medicine has discovered that Siwaak contains many substances that are of benefit to humans, especially for the gums. There are substances that counteract germs, act as purifiers, have cleaning properties for the teeth and freshen the smell and taste of the mouth.
WEARING SHOES

Put shoes on starting with the right foot and take them off starting with the left:

When you put shoes on, begin with the right and when you remove them, begin with the left. Or, wear them both, or leave them both off.[1]

The Muslim does this many times during the day and night—when entering and leaving the Masjid, the bathroom, the house, when going to work etc. Whenever the Muslim puts on or removes his shoes in accordance with the Sunnah, with this intention in mind, he obtains a great reward. And all his actions of Harakaat and Sakanaat will then be according to the Sunnah.

1. Say At-Tanmiyah when dressing or undressing.

Imaam An-Nawawee said:

To say the Tasmiyah is preferred in all actions.[1]

2. Use the Prophet’s (ﷺ) supplication.

When he put on a Thawb, long shirt, upper garment or turban, he would say:

الحمد لله الذي كسباني هذا (الثوب) ورزقنيه

All praise is for Allah, Who has clothed me with this garment and provided it for me, with no power or might from myself.[2]

3. Begin with the right side:

No evidence for saying the Tasmiyah when dressing was found. However, general evidences show the desirability of saying it before certain actions. The opinion of Imaam An-Nawawee is that is desirable to say it in all actions.

The Du’aa found in the original Arabic manuscript has been replaced with this more authentic one.
When you wear clothes and perform Wudoo, begin with the right.\(^{33}\)

4. Begin taking clothes off from the left side\(^{[1]}\).

\(^{[1]}\) There is no specific evidence for this, but it seems that general evidences indicating to begin with the right (for things that are good) and the left for the opposite have been used. This was used in relation to putting on clothes, i.e., to put them on starting with the right; therefore, when taking them off, begin with the left.
ENTERING AND LEAVING THE HOUSE

Imaam An-Nawawee said it is preferable:

To say the Tasmiiyah, increase in the remembrance of Allah and to greet the people.

1. Remember Allah when entering:

When a man enters his house and mentions the Name of Allah while entering and while eating Shaytaan says (to the other Shayaateen), ‘There is no abode for you and no food’.

2. Supplicate when entering:

O Allah, I ask You for the best of entering and the best of leaving. In the Name of Allah we enter, and in the Name of Allah we leave, and in our Lord, we place our trust......and then to greet its inhabitants (i.e. family).
By this, the person is consciously seeking to put his reliance on Allah when entering and leaving the house. This is also a means to create a permanent bond with Allah.

3. Use a Siwaak:

When the Prophet (ﷺ) entered his home, he began by using a Siwaak.

4. Say the Tasleem:

"... When you enter the houses, greet one another with a greeting from Allah, blessed and good..."

(An-Noor, 24:61)

'Greeting from Allah' means to say Tasleem.

5. Leave with the following supplication:

In the Name of Allah, I place my trust in Allah, and there is no might or power except with Allah.
It will then be said to the one who says this:

"كُفِيتَ وَوَفِيتَ وَتَنَقَّلَ عَنْهَا السَّيْطَانُ"

You have been sufficed and have been protected and Shaytaan has retreated.37

The Muslim enters and leaves his house many times during the day and nights: for prayer in the Masjid, work, household duties etc. If he practices these Sunan when he comes and goes, he will obtain for himself great benefit and reward.

Some benefits of practicing these Sunan are:

- The servant will be sufficed in his important affairs, whether worldly or religious matters.

- The servant will be protected from every evil and adversity, whether from Jinn or mankind.

- The servant will receive guidance – Allah will guide you in all of your religious and worldly affairs.
GOING TO THE MASJID

1. Go early, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:
   If mankind knew what (reward) was in the call[1] and in the first row[2] and found no other way to get that (reward) except by drawing lots, then they would have drawn lots.

   ..... and if they knew what (reward) was in praying Salaah Adh-Dhuhr in its earliest time (Tahjeer) they would have raced for it....

   And if they knew the reward of Al-‘Isha and Al-Fajr prayer in congregation, they would come to offer them even if they had to crawl.38

   Imaam An-Nawawee said the word Tahjeer means to be early for the prayer.

2. Supplicate when going to the Masjid:

   اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ فِي قُلُوبِي نُورًا، وَفِي لِسَانِي

[1] i.e. to pronounce the Adhaan.
[2] i.e. to pray in the first row of the congregational prayer.
O Allah, place light in my heart, and light on my tongue, and light within my ears, and light in my eyes, and place behind me light and in front of me light and above me light and beneath me light. O Allah, bestow on me light!

3. Walk with Sakeenah and Waqaar.
   If you hear the Iqaamah, then walk to the prayer with Sakeenah and Waqaar.

- Sakeenah is to move calmly and avoid frivolity and

- Waqaar is to lower the gaze and voice, and avoiding excessive looking around.

4. Walk to the Masjid:
   The jurists have stipulated that in order to increase the reward, it has been recommended in the Sunnah to go to the Masjid walking and to avoid haste. The Sharee’ah texts show the many merits in walking to the Masjid.
The Prophet ﷺ said:
‘Shall I not show you something by which Allah removes your wrong-doings and raises your level (in Paradise)?’
‘The (the Companions) said, ‘Yes, O Messenger of Allah’. He (ﷺ) mentioned that from those things is taking many steps to the Masjid. \(^{41}\)

5. Supplicate when entering the Masjid:
When one of you enters the Masjid, send Salaah on the Prophet (ﷺ) and say:

اللَّهُمَّ افْتَحْ لِي أَبْوَاتِكَ رَحْمَتَكَ

O Allah, open for me the doors of your mercy. \(^{42}\)

6. Enter with the right foot.
The saying of Anas bin Maalik (ﷺ):
From the Sunnah is that if you enter the Masjid, enter with your right foot and when you leave, leave with your left foot. \(^{43}\)

7. Pray Tahiyaat Al-Masjid when entering:
When one of you enters the Masjid, do not sit until you pray two Rak’ah of prayer. \(^{44}\)
Imaam Ash-Shaafi’ee said:
Tahiyaat Al-Masjid is legislated, even in the forbidden times.

Also, Imaam Al-Haafidh bin Hajar said: The People of Fatwaa (i.e. the Scholars) agreed that Tahiyaat Al-Masjid is Sunnah.[1]

8. Proceed to the first row:

If mankind knew what (reward) was in the call[2] and in the first row[3] and they found no other way to get that (reward) except by drawing lots, then they would have drawn lots.....

9. Supplicate when leaving the Masjid:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أُسْأَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ

O Allah, I ask you from Your bounties.46

Also narrated by Aboo Daawood, with the addition of sending Salaah on the Prophet (ﷺ).

10. Leave with the left foot.47

[1] In this context, Sunnah is something that is not obligatory.

[3] i.e. to pray in the first row for the congregational prayer.
THE ADHAAN

There are five Sunan of the Adhaan as mentioned by Ibn Al-Qayyim in Zaad Al-Ma’aad:

1. The Person hearing the Adhaan repeats what the Mu’adhadhbin says, except for when he hears:

«حَيَّ عَلَى الْصَّلَاةِ، حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلَاحِ»

Come to prayer. Come to prosperity

... instead, he says:

«لَا حُوَلَّ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ»

There is no might, or power, except with Allah.48

The benefit of this Sunnah is that it makes Paradise obligatory, as mentioned in the narration by Muslim.

2. Then, the one hearing the Adhaan should say:

وَأَنَا أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اِلله وَحْدَهْ لا شَرِيكَ

ۚ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدًا وَرَسُولًا، رَضِيَّب ۡبِهِ رَبِّي ۡبَلۡ وَبِمُحَمَّدِ رَسُولَ ۡلَآ إِلَّا إِلَهَانَۚ١٣٢٠٣٢٣١٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤٨٤
And I also bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah, alone without any partners, and I bear witness that Muhammad (ﷺ) is His Slave and Messenger. I am pleased with Allah as the Lord, with Muhammad as the Messenger and with Islam as the religion. 49

The benefit of this Sunnah is that the person’s sins would be forgiven.

3. Then, send Salaah on the Prophet (ﷺ):
When you hear the Mu’adhdhin, say as he says, then send Salaah on me for whoever sends Salah on me, Allah sends Salaah on him ten times. 50

The fullest form is Salaah Al-Ibraaheemiyyah:

اللَّهُمَّ صُلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمٍ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمٍ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ، اللَّهُمَّ بَارَكَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمٍ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمٍ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ

O Allah, send Salaah on Muhammad and his family, as you sent Salaah on Ibraaheem and his family. Verily you are Praised, Majestic.

O Allah, send blessings on Muhammad and his family as you sent blessings on Ibraaheem and his family. Verily you are Praised, Majestic.\footnote{51}

The meaning of Allah's Salaah on his servant is Allah praising the servant in the highest of gatherings (i.e. of the angels).

4. After the Salaah on the Prophet (ﷺ), say:

"اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ هَذِهِ الدُّعَوَّةِ النَّافِعَةِ، وَالصَّلَاةُ
القَانِمَةِ، آتِ مُحَمَّدًا الوَسِيْلَةَ وَالفَضْيِلَةَ،
وَابْعَثْ مَقَامًا مُّحْمُودًا الْذِي وَعَدْتُهُ"

O Allah, Lord of this Perfect Call and Owner of this Prayer to be performed, bestow on Muhammad Al-Waseelah and Al-Fadeelah that You promised him.\footnote{52}

The benefit of this supplication is that whoever says it will be granted the Prophet's (ﷺ) intercession on the Day of Resurrection.

5. Finally, supplicate for oneself, asking
Allah from His Bounty; for surely He will respond:

Say as they are saying (i.e. the Mu’adhdhin). When you have finished, ask (supplicate), for it will be given to you. 53
THE IQAAMAH

Perform points 1 to 4 as mentioned in the previous Chapter – Sunan of the Adhaan. Just as for the Adhaan, the Sunnah for the one hearing the Iqaamah is to repeat what the person calling the Iqaamah say. However, when he says,

«حَيَّ عَلَی الْصَّلَاةَ، حَيِّ عَلَی الْفَلَح»

Come to prayer, come to prosperity.

.... one should not repeat this, but instead say:

«لا حُرُوَّل وَلَا قُوَّةٌ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ»

There is no might, or power, except with Allah.

Note, when the person calling the Iqaamah says,

«قَدْ قَامَتِ الْصَّلَاةُ»

The Salaah is about to be established.

... the person hearing it should say likewise and he should not say,

«أَقَامَهَا اللَّهُ وَأَدَامَهَا»
Allah has established it (the prayer) and has preserved.

...as the Hadeeth that mentions this week.
PRAYING TOWARDS A SUTRAH

The Prophet ﷺ said:

When one of you prays, pray towards a Sutrah. Stand close to it and do not let anyone pass between you and it. 56

This text is general regarding taking a Sutrah – irrespective of whether it is in the Masjid or home, for men or women. Some people do not adopt this Sunnah, so we find them praying without a Sutrah. This Sunnah is repeated by a Muslim many times during the day and night-for the Sunnah Ar-Rawaatib, Ad-Duhaa, Tahiyaat Al-Masjid and Al-Witr prayers. For a woman it is repeated when she prays her obligatory prayers at home. As for the congregational prayers, the Imaam is the Sutrah for those behind him.

ISSUES REGARDING THE SUTRAH

1. The Sutrah can be whatever the person praying sets in front of him when he is facing the Qiblah – such as a wall, stick or pillar. There is no limit to its width.

2. It should be at least the height of the back of a saddle (about a hand span). 57
3. The space from the feet to the Sutrah should be about three arm-spans so that there is sufficient room for Sajdah.

4. The Sutrah has been legislated for the Imaam as well as for the person praying alone, for the obligatory and optional prayers alike.\(^{59}\)

5. The Sutrah of the Imaam is the Sutrah of the people praying behind him. It is permissible to walk between the lines of the people praying (i.e. in front of them) if there is a need.\(^{60}\)

Benefits of observing this Sunnah:

- It protects the prayer from being broken.
- When someone passes in front of a praying person, it cuts or reduces the value of the prayer. Things that break the Salaah, when they pass between the one praying and his Sutrah, are a female past the age of puberty, and a black dog.\(^{61}\)
- The person praying provides a space for the people to pass by, thereby not giving them a need to pass directly in front of him.
- It protects the eyes from wandering and looking around, because the person using the Sutrah would always focus his sight to the area before his Sutrah. In this way, it is easier to contemplate on the meanings of the prayer.
THE OPTIONAL PRAYERS

1. Ar- Rawaatib prayers:

There is not a Muslim servant who prays to Allah twelve Rak‘aat, other than the obligatory prayers, every day and in obedience to Him, except that Allah builds for him a house in Paradise; or a house will be built for him in Paradise.⁶²

These extra, recommended prayers are:
- Four Rak‘aat before Salaah Adh-Dhuhr and two after it.
- Two Rak‘ah after Salaah Al-Maghrib,
- Two Rak‘ah before Salaah Al-‘Isha and
- Two Rak‘ah before Salaah Al-Fajr.

My dear brother, do you not yearn for a house in Paradise?

Preserve this Prophetic advice and perform twelve Rak‘ah, in addition to the obligation prayers.

2. Salaah Ad-Duhaa.

In the human body, there are three hundred and sixty joints. In order to express gratitude for this blessing, charity is required to be given on behalf of every one of these joints daily; yet, the full reward of this, can be attained by praying the two Rak‘ah of Ad-Duhaa:

Every morning, charity is due on every joint of a person - every Tasbeeh is a charity, to enjoin good is a charity and to forbid evil is a charity. All of this is sufficed by two Rak‘ah prayed at Ad-Duhaa.\cite{63}

Aboo Hurayrah (ﷺ) said:

My friend (ﷺ) advised me to fast three days of every month\footnote{1} ... pray two Rak‘ah of Ad-Duhaa and pray Al-Witr before lying down (to sleep)\ldots \cite{64}

Its time begins approximately fifteen minutes after the sun rises and lasts until approximately fifteen minutes before Salaah Adh-Dhuhr. The best or preferred time to perform it is at the time of preferred time to perform it is at the time of intense heat. The minimum number of Rak‘aat is two and the maximum is eight. It has also been said that there is no limit to the number.

\footnote{1} i.e. the three day of the full moon, which are the 13th - 15th of the lunar month.
3. Sunnah of Salaah Al-‘Asr:

May Allah have mercy on a person who prays four Rak‘aat before Salaah Al-Asr.⁶⁵

4. Sunnah of Salaah Al-Maghrib:

‘Pray before the obligatory prayer of Maghrib’. ‘He said it three times and on the third time he said, ‘For whoever wants’.⁶⁶

5. Sunnah of Salaah Al-‘Isha:

‘Between (every) two calls to prayer is a prayer. ‘Between (every) two calls to prayer is a prayer. ‘Between (every) two calls to prayer is a prayer.’ On the third time he added, ‘For whoever wants’.⁶⁷

Imaam An-Nawawee said the intended meaning of ‘the two calls to prayer’ is the Adhaan and Iqaamah.
THE NIGHT PRAYER

Regarding Qiyaam Al-Layl, the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

The most excellent fast after the month of Ramadan, is fasting in the month of Allah, ‘Al-Muharram’. And the most excellent prayer after the obligatory prayer is the night prayer. 68

1. The preferred number of Rak’aat for the night prayer is eleven or thirteen, with prolonged standing:

The Prophet (ﷺ) prayed eleven Rak’aat and that was his prayer.... 69

In another narration,

He (ﷺ) prayed, in the night, thirteen Rak’aat... 70

2. It is recommended that when a person gets up for Qiyaam Al-Layl, he cleans his teeth with a Siwaak 71 and recites the last Verses of Soorah Aal-‘Imraan, from:

 إِنَّنا فِي خَلْقِ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَخَلَقْنِاهَا ثِلَاثًا ۚ أَلَيْنَ أُولُو الْأَلْطَابِ

“Verily, in the creation of the heavens and the earth, and in the alternation of night and day there are indeed signs for men of understanding."

(Aal-'Imraan, 3:190)

...... until the end of the Soorah.

3. It is recommended to supplicate, using this authentic Du‘aa of the Prophet (ﷺ).[1]

When waking up for the night prayer, the Prophet (ﷺ) used to read this Du‘aa, after making Takbeer, as narrated in another Hadeeth by Al-Bukhaaree.
O Allah, for You is all praise. You are the custodian of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them and for You is all praise.

You are the Source of Light of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them and for You is all praise.

Yours is the dominion of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them and for You is all praise.

You are King of the heavens and earth and for You is all praise.

You are Truth and Your promise is the truth and the meeting with You is true and Your Word is true and Paradise is true and the Fire is true and the Prophets are true and Muhammad is true and the Hour is true.

O Allah, to You I have submitted and in You I have believed and on You I have placed my trust and to You I have repented and over You I have disputed and to You I have turned for judgement.
So, forgive me for my sins that have turned for judgment.
So, forgive me for my sins that have come to pass and of my sins that will come to pass and what I have concealed and what I have made public.
You are Al-Muqaddim and Al-Mu’akkhkhir. There is no deity worthy of worship except You (or there is no deity worthy of worship other than You).\textsuperscript{73}

4. Also from the Sunnah of Qiyaam Al-Layl, is to begin with two short Rak’ah, so that you become active for what comes after:
When one of you stands up for the night prayer, begin with two light Rak’ah (i.e. short).\textsuperscript{74}

5. It is recommend to begin with the authentic supplication established from the Prophet (ﷺ):

اللّهُمَّ رَبَّ يَتُزَّرِئِلَّ، وِمِكَائِيلَ، وِإِشْرَافِيلَ
فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ، عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ
وَالشَّهَادَةِ، أَنْتَ تَحْكُمُ بِيَدَيْكَ فِي مَا كَانُوا فِيهِ

[58]
O Allah, the Lord of Jibraa'eel, Meekaa'eel and Israafeel, Originator of the heavens and the earth, Knower of the seen and unseen.

You are the One Who arbitrates between Your servants in that which they dispute.

Guide me to the truth by Your leave in that which they have differed. Verily, You guide whomsoever You will to the straight path.

6. It is recommended to lengthen the prayer:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) was asked, 'which prayer is the most excellent prayer?' He said, 'That prayer in which there is prolonged Qunoot'.

The meaning of Qunoot here is Qiyaam - the standing position in prayer.

7. It is recommended to:

• Seek refuge in Allah on hearing or

Refer to the explanation of this Hadeeth in Saheeh Muslim by Imaam An-Nawawee, in which it is mentioned that the meaning of Qunoot, in the Hadeeth, is Qiyaam.
reading Verses of punishment by saying,

أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ عَذَابِ اللَّهِ

I seek refuge in Allah from Allah's Punishment.

- Ask for His Mercy on Verses of mercy,

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أُشْأَلُكَ مِنْ فُضُّلِكَ

O Allah, I ask You from Your bounties.

- Praise Him on Verses of glorification,

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ

Far removed is Allah from any imperfection.

This is from the Hadeeth:

...he (ﷺ) read slowly (with reflection). If he read a Verse of glorification, he glorified Him. If he read a Verse of request, he asked from Him. If he read a Verse seeking refuge, he sought refuge in Him.[1] ....

[1] This Hadeeth states that the Prophet (ﷺ) glorified Allah, requested Him and sought refuge in Him. However, no specific wording for how he (ﷺ) did this was mentioned. Therefore, the Shaykh has given us some examples of what can be said.
Things that help one to perform Qiyaam Al-Layl:

○ Supplication.[1]

○ Avoid staying up late at night.

○ Refrain from all forms of disobedience.

[1] i.e. ask Allah to assist you and make it easy for you.
THE WITR PRAYER

1. Whoever performs three Rak'aat of Al-Witr, should read the following after Al-Faatihah:

In the first Rak'ah,

«سبح اسم ربك العليم»

"Glorify the Name of your Lord, most High..."

(Al-A'laa, 87:1 - 19)

In the second,

«قل وبدأنها الحكيرون»

"Say: 'O you disbelievers...’”

(Al-Kaafiroon, 109:1 - 6)

And in third,

«قل هو الله»

"Say: 'He is Allah the One, the Unique...”"

(Al-Ikhlaas, 112:1 - 4)

2. Say after Tasleem (at the end of the prayer):

«سبحان المليك القدوس».
Far removed is the King, the Holy from any imperfections. (Three times)\textsuperscript{79}

And in another narration, collected by Ad-Daraqutni,

After the final saying of,

\begin{itemize}
\item \textit{شُبِّحَانَ الْمَلِيكَ الْقَدْوِسِ}.
\item \textit{زَبُّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ وَالْرُوحِ}.
\end{itemize}

...he \textit{(ho) raised and prolonged his voice and said,}

\begin{itemize}
\item The Lord of the angels and Ar-Rooh.\textsuperscript{[1]}
\end{itemize}

\textsuperscript{[1]} In this context, \textit{Ar-Rooh} refers to the angel Jibraa’eeel.
Salaah Al-Fajr has specific Sunan related to it, from among them is to:

1. Shorten the length of Sunnah prayer, on the authority of Aishah (Mrs):
   The Prophet (ﷺ) prayed two short Rak'ah between the Adhaan and Iqamah of Fajr prayer.\(^{80}\)

2. From the recommended Verses to recite in the Sunnah prayer, are the following:\(^{81}\)

   In the first Rak'ah,

   فُوْلَا مَآمِنَنَا بِاللَّهِ وَمَا أَنزَلَ إِلَيْنَا

   “Say: ‘We believe in Allah and what was sent down to us...’”

   (Al-Baqarah, 2:136)

   And in the last Rak'ah either read,

   عَآمِنَا نَٰبِلَ وَآشْهَدْنَا نَٰبِلَا مُسْلِمِنَّ

   “We believe in Allah and bear witness that we are Muslims.”

   (Aal-'Imraan, 3:52)

   ... or read,

   فَوَقَرَ تَأَلِّلَ الْكِتَابِ تَمَالَكَاهَا إِلَى سَكِعِمَةُ سَوْلَمُ بَيْنَنَا
“Say: ‘O people of the Scripture, come to a word that is just between us and you...’”

(Aal-'Imraan, 3:64)

Alternatively, read in the first Rak’ah:

“Say: ‘O you disbelievers...’”

(Al-Kaafiroon, 109: 1 -6)

And in the last Rak’ah,

“Say: ‘He is Allah, the One and Unique...’”

(Al-Ikhlaas,112: 1 - 4)

3. Take a rest after the Sunnah prayer:

When the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed two Rak’ah of the Sunnah prayer of Al-Fajr, he would lie down on his right side.[1]

After you have prayed the two Rak’ah of the Sunnah of Al-Fajr, try to lie down on your right side, even for a minute or so, so that you can fulfill this Sunnah.

[1] The general practice of the Prophet (ﷺ) was to pray the Sunnah of Al-Fajr at home.
SITTING AFTER THE FAJR PRAYER

It is from the Sunnah to sit after the prayer:

When the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed Al-Fajr, he sat in his place until the sun rose Hassanaa.84

Imaam An-Nawawee said Hassanah, in this grammatical form, means 'risen perfectly'.[1]

Benefit of sitting in the Masjid:

Allah (ﷻ) instructed the angels to pray for forgiveness for those sitting in the Masajid, whether it is before or after the Salaah, by saying:

»اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِهُ

O Allah, forgive him.

»اللَّهُمَّ ارْحَمْهُ

O Allah, have Mercy on him.85

What is a greater blessing than this? Look at your status with Allah if you obey Him. The angels - the creation that is close to Allah - are instructed to supplicate for you!

[1] i.e. has completely cleared the horizon.
WHAT IS SAID DURING THE PRAYER

From the Sunan of what should be said during the prayer, is:

1. Recite the opening supplication after the first Takbeer (Takbeer Al-Ihraam):

« سبحانه وتعالى أنتَ أعلم وحتماً، وتبادرك
استمك، و تعالى جدك، ولا إله غيرك »

Far removed are you from any imperfection, O Allah and praise be to You.
Blessed be your Name and lofty is Your position.
And none has the right to be worshipped except You.

Alternatively, you may say:

« اللهُم بَاعِدِ بَنِي وَبَنِى خَطاِيَايَ كَمَا بَاعِدَتُ بَينَ
المُشَرِقِ والمغربِ، اللهُم تُفْنِيْي مِن الخُطَايا،
كَمَا يَتَقَى التُّوبُ الأَبِيْضُ مِن الدَّنسِ، اللهُمَ
اغْسِلِ مِن خَطَايَايِ بإِنَمَاءٍ والْلُّجْ والْبَرَدِ »

O Allah, distance me from my sins just
You have distanced the east from the west. O Allah, purify me of my sins as a white Thawb is purified of filth. O Allah, cleanse me of my sins with snow, water and ice.

2. Seek refuge in Allah before reciting from the Qur’an:

أَعُوذُ بِاللهِ مِنَ الشَّيَāتِانِ الرَّجِيمِ

I seek refuge in Allah from Shaytaan, the accursed.

3. Then recite Al-Basmala:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَانِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the Name of Allah – the most Gracious, the most Merciful.

4. Say آَمِينَ (Ameen) after reciting Al-Faatihah.

5. Recite a Soorah after Al-Faatihah.

The person praying alone should recite a Soorah, or part of one, after Al-Faatihah in the first two Rak’ah of all prayers.

For the one who is praying behind the Imaam in congregation, he should read a Soorah after Al-Faatihah in the first two Rak’ah of the silent prayers.
As for the first two Rak’ah of the loud prayers, he does not read but instead listens to the Imaam’s recitation.

6. Supplicate upon rising from Rukoo’:

«ربّا لَّكُمّ الحَمْدُ»

Our Lord, to You be all praise.

And then say:

«مُلْئِ النَّاسِ وَمِلْئِ الْأَرْضِ وَمِلْئِ ما شَيْطَّنَ مِنْ شَيْءٍ بَعْدُ، أُهِلَّ الْجَنَّةِ وَالْجَحَّالِدِ أَخْطَبُ مَا قَالَ الْعَبِيدُ وَكُلُّنَا لَكَ عَبْدًا لِلَّهٖ لَا مَانِعُ لِمَا أُعْطِيَتْ وَلَا مَعْطَى لِمَا مَنَعَتْ وَلَا يَفْتَقُّ ذَا النُّجُدِ مِنَ النُّجُدِ»

The heavens and the earth and all that is between them abound with Your praises and all that You will abound with Your praises.

O Possessor of praise and majesty, the truest thing a slave had said (of You) and we are all Your slaves.

O Allah, none can prevent what You willed to bestow and none can bestow what you willed to prevent and no wealth or majesty can benefit anyone, as all Wealth and Majesty is from You.

7. Repeat the Tasbeeh more than once:

The Tasbeeh while bowing:

«سبحان ربي العظيم»

Far removed is my Lord from any imperfections, the Supreme.

The Tasbeeh while prostrating:

«سبحان ربي الأعلى»

Far removed is my Lord from any imperfections, the Most High.

8. Repeat this supplication more than once while sitting between the two prostrations:

«رب اغفر لي»

My Lord, forgive me.

9. Supplicate after the final Tashshahud:

«للهم إني أعوذ بِك من عذاب جهنم ومن عذاب القيبر ومن فتنة الدجال»

O Allah, verily I seek refuge with You from the punishment of Hell and the punishment of the grave and from the trials of life and death and from the evil trial of the Dajjaal.\textsuperscript{96}

10. Lengthen the supplication when prostrating.

It is preferred for the person not to shorten the supplication after the initial \textit{Tasbeeh} in prostration but on the contrary to increase the supplication, as he wills. This is taken from the following Hadith:

\textit{The closest the servant is to his Lord, is when he is prostrating – so increase the supplication in it.}\textsuperscript{97}

\textbf{Points to note:}

\begin{itemize}
  \item The \textit{Sunan} of speech are performed in every \textit{Rak'ah}, except the opening supplication and the supplication after the \textit{Tashshahud}.
  \item There are other supplications. Whoever desires to know then may refer to \textit{Hisn Al-Muslim} by Shaykh Sa'eed Al-Qahtaanee.
\end{itemize}

So, the total number of the \textit{Sunan} mentioned above, in the obligatory prayers, amounts to ten. As for the optional prayers performed in the day and night in which these two Sunan are repeated, their total amounts to twenty-four Sunan. This may be increased by performing Qiyaam Al-Layl, Ad-Duhaan and Tahiyaat Al-Masjid. By performing more often the Sunan that occur once in the Salaah, the person’s reward will be increased and his hold on the Sunnah strengthened.
ACTIONS PERFORMED IN THE PRAYER

From the Sunan actions of the prayer, is:

1. Raise the hands at the following times:
   - When saying Takbeer Al-Ihraam.
   - When going into Rukoo'.
   - When rising from Rukoo'.
   - When standing up for the third Rak'ah.

2. The manner of raising the hands:
   - When raising and lowering the hands, the fingers should be close together, stretched out and with the palms of the hands facing the Qiblah.
   - Raise the hands—either to the side of the shoulders or to the bottom of the ears.

3. Place the right hand on the left, or grasp the left wrist bone with your right hand.

4. Look towards the place of prostration.

5. Separate your feet to a comfortable distance when standing.

6. Recite the Qur'aan with Tarteel and contemplate on what is being said.
“And recite the Qur’aan (aloud) with Tarteel.”

(Al-Muzzammil, 73:4)

AR-RUKOO’

From the Sunan of Rukoo’, is:

1. Grasp the knees with the hands, while the fingers are apart.
2. Extend the back so that it is flat.
3. The head should be in line with the back, without lowering it or raising it.\(^\text{[1]}\)
4. Keep the upper arms away from the side of the body.\(^\text{[1]}\)

AS-SUJOOD

From the Sunan of Sujood, is:

1. To keep the upper arms away from the side of the body.\(^\text{[1]}\)
2. To keep the stomach away from the thighs.

3. To ensure the thighs are away from the shins.\textsuperscript{[1]}

4. To separate the knees.\textsuperscript{[2]}

5. To keep the feet upright.\textsuperscript{112}

6. To ensure the toes face the Qiblah, so that the joints of the toes rest on the floor.\textsuperscript{113}

7. To press the feet together for the duration of the prostration.\textsuperscript{114}

8. To place the hands in line with the shoulders or ears.\textsuperscript{115}

9. To straighten the hands.\textsuperscript{116}

10. To ensure the fingers are close together.\textsuperscript{117}

11. To ensure the fingers are pointing towards the Qiblah.\textsuperscript{118}

\textbf{AL-JALSAH}

1. The sitting (or Jalsah) between the prostration is of two types:
   - The first is called \textit{Al-Iqaa’}, which it is to sit i.e. keep the hamstrings away from the calves. No specific evidence was found for Points 2 to 4. However, from the description of the Prophet’s (\textcircled{S}) Sajdah, he (\textcircled{S}) was not cramped up, but rather he was spread out. on the heels with both feet upright.\textsuperscript{[1]}\textsuperscript{[199]}

- The second is called Al-Iftiraash. This is to keep the right foot in an upright position and lay the left foot flat on the floor.

2. The sitting for the first Tashshahud is also Al-Iftiraash, except that it is to sit on the left foot with the right foot upright.\textsuperscript{[120]}

It is Sunnah to lengthen Jalash Al-Iftiraash:

The Prophet (ﷺ) used to lengthen this sitting, until a person would say, 'Perhaps, he has forgotten (to continue).'\textsuperscript{[2]}\textsuperscript{[121]}

3. The other type of sitting is called Jalsah Al-Istiraahah.\textsuperscript{[3]} It is performed after the second prostration before standing up, in the first and third Rak'ah. There are no supplications in it and the Sunnah is to sit briefly.\textsuperscript{[122]}

\textsuperscript{[1]} This type of sitting is only permitted for the sitting between the two prostrations and not for the Tashahhud.

\textsuperscript{[2]} This is an indication that the Prophet (ﷺ) used to sit in this position for a long time.

\textsuperscript{[3]} Jalash Al-Istiraahah is performed in the same manner as Jalash Al-Iftiraash is performed for the first Tashahhud.
THE FINAL TASHAHHUD

1. This final sitting has three forms:
   - At-Tawarruk: This is to keep the right foot upright, while placing the left foot under the right shin and to sit on the floor.\textsuperscript{123}
   - Sit in the same position as above, except that the right foot is not placed upright, but it follows the direction of the left.\textsuperscript{124}
   - To keep the right foot upright and to place the left leg between the shin and thigh of right leg.\textsuperscript{125}

2. Place the hands on the thighs - the right hand on the right thigh and the left hand on the left thigh - with the fingers outstretched and close together.\textsuperscript{126}

3. Point with the index finger, during this Tashahhud, from the beginning to the end and connect the thumb with the middle finger to form a circle. Focus the sight on the index finger.\textsuperscript{127}

4. At-Tasleem: This is to turn the head to the right then left when finishing the prayer.\textsuperscript{128}
Summary of actions in the prayer:

There are twenty-five Sunan pertaining to the actions repeated in every Rak'ah. From amongst those Sunan that are not repeated in the prayer more than once or twice:

- To raise the hands with initial Takbeer.
- To raise the hands to the shoulders or bottom of the ears when standing up for the third Rak'ah, in prayer comprising of two Tashahhuds.
- To point with the index finger from the beginning of the Tashahhud to the end of it, whether it is the first or second Tashahhud.
- Jalsah Al-Istiraahah, which is repeated twice, in the prayer consisting of four Rak'aat, and once in the remaining prayers, whether it is an obligatory or voluntary prayer.
- At-Tawarruk: This is in the second Tashahhud, in a prayer with two Tashahhuds.
- To turn the head to the right and the left in concluding the prayer (Tasleem).

These Sunan are all repeated once, except the pointing with the index finger during Tashahhud which is performed twice in every obligatory prayer (apart from Salaah Al-Fajr) and Jalsah Al-Istiraahah, which is repeated twice in a four-Rak‘aat prayer. These Sunan total thirty-four.

Strive to beautify your prayer by implementing these Sunan of speech and action so that your reward is increased and your status with Allah is raised.

General words of advice from Ibn Al-Qayyim:

*The servant is between the Hands of Allah in two situations. The first is during the time of prayer and the second is on the Day of Meeting (i.e. the Day of Judgment).

So, whoever fulfils his duty in the first situation will have ease in the second, and whoever underestimates the importance of the first situation and does not fulfill its rights, will have hardships in the second.*
AFTER THE OBLIGATORY PRAYERS

There are many Adhkaar that can be said after the obligatory prayer. From among them is:

1. To say:

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ (ثِلَاثَ مَرات)
I seek the forgiveness of Allah. (Three times)

Followed by,

اللَّهُمَّ أَنتَ السَّلامُ وَمِنكَ السَّلامُ
نَباَرَكَتْ يَا ذَا الْجَلَّالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ
O Allah, You are Peace and from You is all Peace.
Blessed are You, O Possessor of Majesty and Honour. 129

2. To say:

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ (ثلَاثَ أَوُلَائِينَ مَرَةً)
Far removed is Allah from any imperfections. (Thirty-three times)
All praise is for Allah. (Thirty-times)

Allah is the Greatest. (thirty-three times)

On completion of this, then say:

لا إله إلا الله وحده لا شريك له ملك
واعبده و هو علٍ كن شمين قدير

There is no deity worthy of worship, except Allah alone, having no partners. To Him belongs all sovereignty and praise and He is over all things, Omnipotent.

3. To say:

لا إله إلا الله وحده لا شريك له ملك
واعبده و هو علٍ كن شمين قدير

(عشر مرات)

There is no deity worthy of worship, except Allah alone, having no partners. To Him belongs all sovereignty and praise. He gives life and death and He is over all things, Omnipotent.

To be said ten times after the Maghrib and Fajr prayers.

All of these praises should be counted on the hand. There is a difference of opinion about the authenticity of narration specifying the use of only the right hand, but there are general evidences that indicate the use of the right hand.

4. To say:

ла إِلَهَ إِلَاءَ اللهُ وَحْدَهْ لا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلُكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ. اللَّهُمَّ لا مَانِعٌ لِمَا أُعْطِيتِ وَلَا مُغْطِيٌّ لِمَا مَنِيتِ وَلَا يَنْفَعُ ذَا الْجَدِّ مِنكَ الْجَدُّ

There is no deity worthy of worship, except Allah alone, having no partners. To Him belongs all sovereignty and praise and He is over all things, Omnipotent.

O Allah, no one prevent what You have willed to bestow and no one can bestow what You have willed to prevent and no wealth or majesty can benefit anyone, as from You is all wealth and majesty.

5. To say:

لا إِلَهَ إِلَاءَ اللهُ وَحْدَهْ لا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلُكُ وَلَهُ
There is no deity worthy of worship, except Allah alone, having no partners. To Him belongs all sovereignty and praise. He is over all things, Omnipotent. There is no might, or power, except with Allah. There is no deity worthy of worship except Allah, and We worship none, except Him.

For Him is all favour, grace and glorious praise. There is no deity worthy of worship, except Allah. We are sincere in our faith to Him, even though the disbelievers dislike it.

6. To say:

«اللَّهُمَّ أَعْنيَ عَلَيْ ذِكْرِكَ وَشُكْرِكَ وَحُسْنِ عِبَادَتِكَ»

Allah, help me in Your remembrance and in gratitude to You and in perfect worship of You.

7. To say:
O Allah, I seek refuge in Your from cowardice. And I seek refuge in You from returning to the worst part of my life. And I seek refuge in You from the trials of the Dunya. And I seek refuge in You from the punishment of the grave.

8. To say:

‘My Lord save me from Your punishment of the Day when You resurrect or gather Your slaves’.

This is from the following Hadeeth, narrated by Al-Barraah (R) who said:
When we prayed behind the Messenger of Allah (SAW), we wished to be on his right so he would turn and face us after the prayer. And I heard him say,

‘My Lord save me from Your punishment on 9 To recite the last three Suwar of the Qur’aan:

“Say: ‘He is Allah the One, the Unique...’”

(Al-Ikhlaas 112:1 - 4)

“Say: ‘I seek refuge with the Lord of the daybreak...’”

(Al-Falaq, 113:1 - 5)

“Say: ‘I seek refuge with the Lord of mankind...’”

(An-Naas, 114:1 - 6)

Repeat each Soorah three times, after the Fajr and Maghrib prayers. After all other obligatory prayers repeat them only once.

10. To Recite Aayah Al-Kursee:

(الله لا إله إلا هو الى الاقوم...
“Allah, none has the right to be worshipped, but He, the Ever-Living...”

(Al-Baqarah, 2:255)

11. To say these supplications while in the place of prayer and not to change positions. [1]

Benefits of these Adhkaar:

Some of the benefits of observing and preserving these Sunan after every obligatory prayer:

- If a Muslim preserves these supplications after every obligatory prayer then five hundred Sadaqaat are written for him, from the saying of the Prophet (ﷺ): Every Tasbeeh is Sadaqah, every Takbeer is Sadaqah, every Tahmeed is Sadaqah and every Taheel is Sadaqah. [4]

Imaam An-Nawawwee said a person gains the reward as if he has paid this amount in charity.

[1] The narrations that mention to supplicate in the place of prayer, refer to after Salaah Al-Fajr and Al-Asr only, and are therefore not applicable to other prayers. Readers should note that no narration was found to support this point.
Five hundred trees will be planted for the Muslim who preserves these supplication after every prayer during the day and night:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) passed by Aboo Hurayrah (ﷺ) while he was planting something and said:

'O Aboo Hurayrah, shall I not show you a planting better than this?'

He said: 'Of course, O Messenger of Allah.'

He (ﷺ) said: 'say:

'Subhan Allah, Al-Hamdu lillah, Laa ilaaha illallah, Allaahu Akbar...'

...and a tree will be planted for you in Paradise for every one you say.'

For the one who preserves the reading of Aayah Al-Kursee after every Salaah, there is nothing between him and entering Paradise, except death.

Whoever preserves these praises will have his sins removed, even if they were... as abundant as the foam on the sea.

The one who preserves these praises after every prayer, will not be afflicted with failure or disgrace, in this world or the Hereafter:

The one who says the Mu'aaqibaat will not be afflicted with failure... and he mentioned these praises.

It compensates for the lacking and deficiency in one's performance of the obligatory prayers.
Some Adhkaar to be said in the morning and evening:

1. Aayah Al-Kursee:

Allah, none has the right to be worshipped, but He, the Ever-Living...

(Al-Baqarah, 2:255)

From its benefits is:
Whoever says it in the morning will be protected from the jinn until evening, and whoever says it in the evening will be protected from them until the morning.

2. Al-Mu’awwidhaat:

Say: 'He is Allah the One, the Unique...'

(Al-Ikhlaas, 112:1-4)

Say: 'I seek refuge with the Lord of daybreak...'

(Al-Falaq, 113:1-5)
"Say: 'I seek refuge with the Lord of mankind...''"

(An-Naas, 114:1-6)

From its benefits is that:
Whoever says them three times in the evening and morning, they will be sufficient for him in everything[1]

3. In Saheeh At-Targheeb Wa At-Tarheeb:

O Ever Living, O Self-Subsisting and Supporter of all, by Your mercy I seek assistance.
Rectify for me all of my affairs and do not leave me to myself, even for the blink of an eye.[119]

4. In Saheeh Muslim:

Sufficient for him in everything means the person will be protected from all kinds of evil, as mentioned in Tuhfat Al-Ahwadee by Shaykh Muhammad Al-Mubaarakpuri.
We have reached the evening (and at this very time) to Allah belongs all sovereignty, and all praise is for Allah. None has the right to be worshipped, except Allah alone, having no partners. To Him belongs all sovereignty and praise and He is over all things, Omnipotent. My Lord, I ask You for the good of this night and the good of what follows it, and I seek refuge in You from the evil of this night and the evil of what follows it. My Lord, I seek refuge in You from laziness and senility. My Lord, I seek refuge in You from the torment of the Fire and the punishment of the grave.\textsuperscript{150}
In the morning, replace

أَمْسَيْنَا وَأَمْسَيْنَى الْمُلْكُ للهِ

with

أَصْبَحْنَا وَأَصْبَحَتَ الْمُلْكُ للهِ

and replace

الْيَوْمِ

with

اليوم

5. In Sunan Aboo Daawood and At-Tirmidhee:151

In the morning,

«اللَّهُمَّ بِكَ أَصْبَحْنَا، وَبِكَ أَمْسَيْنَا، وَبِكَ نَخَيْنَا، وَبِكَ نَمُوتُ وَإِلَيْكَ الْمُصِيرُ».

O Allah, by Your leave we have reached the morning and by Your leave we have reached the evening and by Your leave we live and die and to You is our destination.

And in the evening,

«اللَّهُمَّ بِكَ أَصْبَحْنَا، وَبِكَ أَمْسَيْنَا، وَبِكَ نَخَيْنَا، وَبِكَ نَمُوتُ وَإِلَيْكَ الْمُصِيرُ».

O Allah, by Your leave we have reached the evening and by Your leave we have reached the morning and by Your leave we live and die and to You is our resurrection.
In Sunan ibn Maajah:

«اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ عِلْمًا نَفِيعًا، وَرَزْقًا طَيِّبًا وَعَمَّالًا مُتَقَبَّلًا». (إِذَا أَصْبَحَ)

O Allah, verily I ask You for knowledge that is beneficial, sustenance that is pure and actions that are acceptable. (To be said in the morning)\textsuperscript{152}

In Sunan At-Tirmidhee and others:

أَعْوَدُ بِكِلَمَاتِ اللَّهِ النَّافِعَاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ

I seek refuge in the perfect Words of Allah, from every evil created. (Three times in the evening)\textsuperscript{153}

In Sunan Aboo Daawood:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أُصِبِّحْتُ أَشْهِدْكَ وَأَشْهِدُ حَمَّةَ عِزْنِيكَ، وَمَلائِكَتَكَ وَجَمِيعَ خَلِيفَكَ، أَنْتَ اللهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ وَحْدَكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ، وَأَنْ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُكَ وَرَسُولُكَ. (أَرْبَعَ مَرَاتَ)

O Allah, verily, I have reached the morning and I call on You, the bearers of Your throne, Your angels and all of Your creation witness that You are Allah.
None has the right to be worshipped, except You, alone, having no partner and that Muhammad (ﷺ) is Your servant and Messenger. (Four times)\textsuperscript{154}

From its benefits, is that whoever says it in the morning or evening four times, Allah will free him from the Fire.
In the evening, say:

اللّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَفْسَدتُ

in the place of اللّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَضْبَحْتُ

9. In \textit{Sunan Aboo Daawood} and \textit{Musnad Imaam Ahmad}:

اللّهُمَّ غَافِينِي فِي بَذِنِي، اللّهُمَّ غَافِينِي فِي سَمِيعِي، اللّهُمَّ غَافِينِي فِي بَصِرِي، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَّتَ. (اثلًاث مرات)

\textit{O Allah, grant my body health.}
\textit{O Allah, grant my hearing health.}
\textit{O Allah, grant my sight health.}
\textit{No one has the right to be worshipped, except You. (Three times).}\textsuperscript{155}
10. From the same Hadeeth.156

أَعْوُدُ بَيْكَ مِنَ الْكُفَّارِ وَالْفَقْرِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعْوُدُ بَيْكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ، لَا إِلَّا أَنتَ إِلاَّ أَنتَ. (ثلاث مرات)

O Allah, I seek refuge in You from disbelief and poverty.

O Allah, I seek refuge in You from the punishment of the grave.

No one has the right to be worshipped, except You. (Three times)

Both of the above supplication come in the same narration. They have been separated because in the Hadeeth they did not come as one single supplication. They are to be read three times each in the morning and evening.

11. In Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree:

اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ رَبِّي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنتُ، خَلَقْتَني وَأَنَا عَبْدُكَ، وَأَنَا عَلَى عَهْدِكَ وَوَعْدِكَ مَا أُسْتَطْغَتْ، أَعْوُدُ بَيْكَ مِنْ شَرٍّ مَا صَنَعْتُ، أَبُوَّةُ لِكَ بِنَعْمَيْكَ عَلَيِّ، وَأَبُوَّهُ بَلَيْنِبِي فَاغْفِرْ لِي فَإِنَّهُ
O Allah, You are my Lord; none has the right to be worshipped, except You. You created me and I am Your servant and I abide by Your covenant and promise as best as I can.

I seek refuge in You from the evil of what I have committed. I acknowledge Your favour on me and I acknowledge my sin, so forgive me, for verily no one can forgive sins, except You.\(^{157}\)

From its benefits is that whoever says it, having full conviction in it, and dies during the night will enter Paradise; likewise, if he says it and dies during the day he will enter Paradise, as narrated in the same Hadith.

12. Narrated by Imam Ahmad in his Musnad:

"أَضْرَحْنَا عَلَى فِطْرَةِ الْإِسْلاَمِ وَعَلَى كَلِمَةِ الإِخْلاَصِ، وَعَلَى دِينِ نِيَّتَيْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمِ)، وَعَلَى مِلَّةِ أَبِيَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ، حَنِيفًا مُسْلِمًا وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ."

96
We rise (awake) on the Fitrah of Islam and the word of pure faith and on the religion of our Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) and the religion of our forefather, Ibraheem, who was a Muslim and of true faith, and was not of those who associated others with Allah.¹⁵⁸

13. From Amal Al-Yawm Wa Al-Laylah of An-Nasaaee':

«اللَّهُمَّ مَا أَضْحَقْتُ بِي مِنْ يَغْمَةٍ أَوْ بِأَحْدٍ مِنْ خَلْقِكَ فَمَنْكَ وَحَدًّا لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ، فَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ وَلَكَ السُّكَرُ.»

O Allah, whatever blessing I, or any of Your creation has awoken on, is from You alone, having no partners, so for You alone is all praise and to You alone is all thanks.¹⁵⁹

From its benefits is that whoever said this in the morning has fulfilled his gratitude to Allah for the day, and whoever says it in the evening has fulfilled his gratitude to Allah for the night, as narrated in the same Hadeeth.

14. In Sunan Aboo Daawood:
Allah is sufficient for me. No one has the right to be worshipped, except Him. On Him I place my trust and He is the Lord of the great throne. (Seven times)\textsuperscript{160}

From its benefits is that whoever says it seven times in the morning and the evening, Allah will suffice for him all of his important affairs related to his worldly matters and to his religious matters (i.e. the Hereafter).

15. In \textit{Sunan Aboo Daawood} and other collections:

In the Name of Allah, with whose Name nothing is harmed on the earth or in the heavens and He is the All-Seeing, the All-Knowing. (Three times)\textsuperscript{161}

From its benefits is that whoever says it three times in the morning and three times in the evening nothing will harm him.
16. In Sunan Aboo Daawood, Musnad Imaam Ahmad and in other collections:

«راضيتي بِالله رَبِّي، وَبِالإِسْلَامِ دِينِي، وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيٌّ» (ثلاث مرات)

I am pleased with Allah as a Lord, and Islaam as a religion and Muhammad (ﷺ) as a Prophet. (Three times)

From its benefits is that whoever reads this supplication three times in the morning and in the evening, has the right that Allah suffices him on Day of Standing (i.e. the Day of Resurrection), as mentioned in the same Hadeeth.

17. In Saheeh Muslim:

أَسْتَغْفَرُ اللَّهَ وَآتِبَتْ إِلَيْهِ. (مائة مرة)

I ask Allah for forgiveness and to Him I repent. (One hundred times in the day)

18. Also, in Saheeh Muslim:

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحْمَدِهِ: عَدْدُ خَلْقِهِ، وَرِضَا نَفْسِهِ، وَرَزْنَةَ عَرْشِهِ وَمِدَادَ كُلِّمَاتِهِ. (ثلاث مرات)

Far removed is Allah from any imperfections and I praise Him by the number of His creation and His pleasure and by the weight of His throne and the ink of His Words. (Three times)\textsuperscript{164}

19. Also, in \textit{Saheeh Muslim}:

\textbf{سُبْحَانَ اللهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ} (مَائَةَ مَرَة)

Far removed is Allah from any imperfections and I praise Him. (One hundred times)\textsuperscript{165}

From its benefits is that whoever says it one hundred times, in the morning and in the evening, no one will come on the Day of Resurrection with greater than what he has, except the person who has said the same as what he has, or more than him.\textsuperscript{[1]}

Another benefit is that it removes sins, even if they are as much as the foam on the sea.\textsuperscript{166}

20. In \textit{Saheeh Al- Bukhaaree} and \textit{Muslim}:

\textsuperscript{[1]} This is applicable to the one who says these praises:
(a) at the right time, i.e. before sunrise and sunset
(b) with sincerity, conscious of what is being said and reflecting on the meaning and
(c) with consistency.
There is no deity worthy of worship, except Allah alone, having no partners. To Him belongs all sovereignty and praise, and He is over all things Omnipotent. (One hundred times)

Whoever says this one hundred times in the day will have the reward of:

- Freeing ten slaves,
- One hundred good deeds being written for him,
- One hundred sins being removed and
- Being protected during that day, until the evening, from the Shaytaan.

21. In Saheeh Al-Kalimaat Al-Tayyib:

«اللَّهُمَّ عَالِمٌ الْقِيَامِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَاطِرُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ، رَبَّ كُلٌّ شَيْءٍ وَميَلَكَهُ، أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَآ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِلَآ أَنتَ أَعْوَدُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرٍّ نَفْسِي، وَمِنْ شَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشَيْرِكَ، وَأَنْ أَفْرَفَ عَلَى نَفْسِي سُوءًا، أَوْ أَجْرِهَا إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ.»

101
O Allah, Knower of the unseen and the seen, Creator of the Heavens and the Earth, Lord and Sovereign of all things. I bear witness there is no deity worthy of worship, except You.

I seek refuge in You from the evil of my soul and from the evil and Shirki of Shaytaan, and from committing wrong against my soul, or the like of that, to

[1] There are two opinions on how this should be pronounced:
(a) The first opinion is that the word should be pronounced as Shiraki, which means plots and plans. So, this part of the supplication would read,

I seek refuge in Your from the evil of my soul and from the evil and plans of Shaytaan.

(b) The second opinion, which seems to be the strongest, is that it should be pronounced as Shirki; this refers to whatever the Shaytaan is calling you towards, in terms of acts of worship, which result in associating partners with Allah. It does not meant that Shirk is being committed by Shaytaan himself. On the contrary it is the person who commits the Shirk in obedience to Shaytaan.

For a more detailed explanation, refer to Tuhfat Al-Ahwadee, Volume 9, Hadeeth 3452, by Shaykh Muhammad Al-Mubaarakpuri. another Muslim.\footnote{Shaykh Al-Albaanee mentioned that the last part, ...is from another narration is Sunan At-Tirmidhee, narrated by 'Abdullah bin 'Ammāar, and is not mentioned as part of this supplication, which is also from Sunan At-Tirmidhee, but narrated by Aboo Hurayrah.}

Points to note:

☐ Whenever one of these supplications is mentioned, one of the Sunan is implemented. It is necessary for a Muslim to take care of reading these supplications in the morning and evening so that one implements as much as possible of these Sunan.

☐ It is also necessary that you repeat these supplications with sincerity, truthfulness and having certainty in them. Try to be conscious of their meanings so that they affect you in your life, morals and conduct.
MEETING PEOPLE

From the Sunan of meeting a Muslim, are the following:

1. Give Tasleem:
   The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) was asked: 'Which Islam is good (in terms of actions)?' He said: 'To feed the people and to say Salaam to those you know and those you do not know.'

2. Lengthen the greeting:
   A man entered upon the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and said:

   ❲الْسَلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمُ *السَلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمَُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهُ * ❞

   'As-salaamu alaykum.'
   The Messenger (ﷺ) replied to the Salaam. Then the man sat down and the Messenger (ﷺ) said: 'Ten.' Then another man came and said:

   ❲الْسَلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهُ * ❞

   'As-salaamu alaykum wa rahmatullah.'
   The Messenger (ﷺ) replied. Then the man sat down and the Messenger (ﷺ) said:
"Twenty'. The another man came and said:

السلام عليكم ورَحمة الله وبركاته

'As-salaamu alaykum wa rahumatullaahi wa barakaatuh.'

The Messenger (ﷺ) replied. Then the man sat down and the Messsenger (ﷺ) said: 'Thirty'.

Look at how much loss of reward a person inflicts on himself by sufficing himself with saying only a part of the salutation. The person should say the entire Salaam so that he attains thirty good deeds. The least reward for a good deed is ten times its like; therefore, by saying the full greeting, one can earn three hundred good deeds or more.

Accustom yourself to completing the Salaam up to Barakaatuh (بركانه) to obtain this great reward.

The Muslim says the Salaam many times during the day. He says it when entering the Masjid to the people sitting and when leaving them, [1] entering and leaving his

No evidence for saying the Salaam when entering or leaving the Masjid was found. However, what is confirmed in the Sunnah is to pray two Rak'ah of Tahiyaat Al-Masjid on entering.
Do not forget that it is also from the Sunnah that whoever decides to leave a person that he should say the complete Salaam:

When one of you comes to a gathering, then say: ‘Salaam,’ and if someone decides to leave, then say: ‘Salaam,’ and the first does not have more right than the last.\[171\]

3. Smile, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

Do not consider any of the good things as insignificant – even if it is that you meet your brother with a cheerful face.\[172\]

4. Shake hands, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

There are not two Muslims who meet each other and shake hands, except that they are forgiven before they depart (from each other).\[173\]

Imaam An-Nawawee said:

Know that this shaking of hands is \[171\] i.e. it is as important to give the Salaam when leaving a gathering, as it is when entering it. So, one does not have more right than the other.

preferred with every meeting.\footnote{It is not permissible to shake hands with a non-Mahram.}

Notice that if you shake hands with whomever you meet, greet them with Salaam and smile at them you would have fulfilled three Sunan at once.

5. Say a Kalimah Tayyibah:

"Say to my Slaves to say that which is better. Verily, Shaytaan incites to evil between them. Verily, Shaytaan is for mankind a clear enemy."

\textit{(Al-Israa', 17: 53)}

The Prophet (ﷺ) said:

\textit{A Kalimah Tayyibah is charity.}\footnote{Kalimah Tayyibah includes the remembrance of Allah, supplication, Salaam, praising someone for their good traits, noble character, good manners and actions. A Kalimah Tayyibah has a powerful affect on a person – it brings peace and tranquillity to a person’s soul and puts serenity into his}

Kalimah Tayyibah includes the remembrance of Allah, supplication, Salaam, praising someone for their good traits, noble character, good manners and actions.

\textit{A Kalimah Tayyibah has a powerful affect on a person – it brings peace and tranquillity to a person’s soul and puts serenity into his} heart. It is evidence of what is in the heart of the believer of light, guidance and proof of being of the right path.

Have you thought, my dear brother, to fill your life - from the morning to the evening - with kind words, to your spouse, children, neighbours, friends, co-workers and whomever else you deal with, who maybe in need of such words?
EATING

Observe the following Sunan for eating:

1. Pronounce the Tasmiyah:

"بِسْمِ اللَّهِ"

In the Name of Allah.

2. Eat with the right hand.

3. Eat from what is in front of you.

These three Sunan are recorded in one Hadeeth:

O young man, mention the Name of Allah, eat with your right and eat from what is in front of you. [1] 175

4. If some food drops, clean it and then eat it:

If one of you dropped a morsel of food, then remove from it whatever there is of dirt and then eat it... 176

5. Eat with three fingers.

The Prophet (ﷺ) used to eat with three fingers. This was his (ﷺ) way of eating and is better, unless a need requires otherwise. 177

5. The etiquette of sitting when eating:

[i.e. near to you.]
• Kneel on one’s shins and front of the feet, or

This is what is preferred, as was mentioned by Al-Ḥaafidh Ibn Hajar in Fath Al-Baaree.

Observe the following Sunan after eating:

1. Lick the bowl and the fingers:

   The Prophet (ﷺ) ordered the licking of the fingers and bowl, and he said:

   Verily, You do not know in which of it (i.e. which morsel of food) is the blessing.¹⁷⁸

2. Praise Allah:

   Verily, Allah is pleased with the slave who eats his food and praises Allah for it...¹⁷⁹

   And the supplication of the Prophet ﷺ is:

   الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنِي هَذَا، وَرَزَقَنِي، مِنْ عِيْنِ حَوْلِيِّ مَيْنِ وَلَا قُوَّةَ

   All praise is for Allaah, who fed me this and provided it for me without any might or power from myself.

   From the benefits of this Du’aa, is that:
   The person’s past sins will be forgiven.¹⁸⁰
DRINKING

From the Sunan of drinking is:

1. Pronounce the Tasmiyah:

   «بِسْمِ اللَّهِ»

   In the Name of Allah.

2. Drink with the right hand:

   O young man, mention the Name of Allah, eat with your right...[11] 181

3. When drinking, breathe outside of the vessel. And do not drink all at once, but rather, take three breaths.182

4. Sit while drinking:

   Let not one of you drink standing...183

5. Say Talmeed after drinking:

11] This Hadeth does not explicitly mention drinking with the right hand. However, there is a narration of Muslim, on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar ()): When one of you eats, let him eat with his right hand; and when he drinks, let him drink with his right hand—because the Shaytaan eats and drinks with his left hand.

Verily, Allah is pleased with the slave who eats his food and praises Him for it... and he who drinks and praises Him for it.
PERFORMING VOLUNTARY PRAYERS AT HOME

Regarding the excellence of praying at home, the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

Verily, the best prayer of a person is in his house, except for the obligatory prayer. 185

Also, from the Hadeeth where the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

The voluntary prayer of a man (in a place) where no person can see him is equal to twenty-five times his prayer where people can see him. 186

In another Hadeeth, the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

The superiority of the prayer of a man in his house over his prayer (in a place) so that the people can see him, is like the superiority of the obligatory over the voluntary. 187

This Sunnah is repeated many times during the day and night. It includes prayers like Sunnah Ar-Rawaatib, Salaah Ad-Duhaa and Al-Witr.

For every one of these, the person should observe the prayers in his house in order to increase his reward and fulfil the Sunnah.

Implementing these voluntary prayers in the house is a means to:

□ Perfecting tranquillity and sincerity.
□ Distance oneself from showing off.
□ Have mercy descend on the house.
□ Cause the Shaytaan to leave.
□ Multiply the reward of the voluntary prayer, just as the reward of the obligatory prayer is multiplied by performing it in the Masjid.
LEAVING A GATHERING

Say the Du’aa for atonement of the gathering:

«سُبْحَانَكَ الَّهُمَّ وَبِحمْدِكَ، آسْهَدْ أَنَّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنتَ، أَسْتَعْفِرُكَ وَآتُوبُ إِلَيْكَ».

Far removed are You from any imperfections, O Allah and I praise You.
I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except You.
I seek Your forgiveness and to You I repent.

A Muslim attends many gathering during the course of the day and night. Here are a few examples:

- When you eat, no doubt you will speak with whoever is sitting with you.
- When you see a person who is your friend or neighbour, you would speak to them, even if you were standing.
- When sitting, for example at work, school or place of study, and some of your friends or colleagues are with you.
- When sitting with your wife and children and you are conversing with them and they with you.

☐ When you are on a journey or on the way to a place in the car and you are talking with whoever is with you, whether your wife or children.

☐ In a public lecture or private lesson.

Notice how many times you mention this Du’aa during the day and night. In this way, you continually maintain a connection with Allah.

How many times do you praise your Lord, declare Him free of anything not befitting Him and glorify Him, when you say:

Far removed are You from any imperfections, O Allah and I praise You.

How many times have you acknowledged the Oneness\(^1\) of Allah the Most High, in His Lordship, Worship and Names and Attributes, when you say:

I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except You.

\(^{1}\) Oneness means to believe that Allah (as) is alone, unique and no-one shares with Him in the three issues mentioned (i.e. His Lordship, Worship or Names and Attributes).
How many times have you renewed your repentance and forgiveness with Your Lord in the day and night, from that which you have done or earned in that gathering, when you say:

I Seek Your forgiveness and to You I repent.

So, during the day and night, you are between confirming the Oneness of Allah while negating what does not belong to Him, and seeking His forgiveness and repentance for that which you have earned of wrong-doings.

From the benefits of implementing this Sunnah:

- It is redemption for sins and mistakes you may have spoken in that gathering.

Ibn Al-Qayyim said the gathering of Muslims is of two types:

- A social gathering to occupy time. This is more detrimental than beneficial and to a lesser extent it corrupts the heart and wastes time.

- A gathering on cooperating on means of success and advising to truth. This is of the greatest treasures and most beneficial.
MAKING THE CORRECT INTENTION

Have the correct intention:

Verily, actions are judged by intentions and every person gets the reward of what he intended...

Important point:

Know, that all permissible action, like sleeping, eating, working and other than these, can be changed into acts of obedience and a means of nearness to Allah. One can obtain many good deeds due to these actions, if they have the intention of drawing close to Allah when doing them. For example, if you go to sleep early, so you can wake up for Qiyaam Al-Layl or Salaah Al-Fajr, then this sleeping becomes an act of worship. This is true for all other permissible actions.
COMBINING MULTIPLE ACTS OF WORSHIP

The way to utilize a single opportunity to perform multiple acts of worship is only known to those who know how to manage their time.

Here are some examples:

□ When you go to the Masjid, either walking or by car, this act of going is worship, in and of itself and you will be rewarded for this. But, it is also possible to utilize the same time in remembrance of Allah (Dhikr) or recitation of the Qur'an. Hence, a single opportunity has been utilized to perform multiple acts of worship.

□ When going to a Waleemah that is free from evil acts, this attendance is an act of worship itself. But, it is possible to also utilize the time to call people to Allah or to engage in the remembrance of Allah (Dhikr).

□ For a lady to remain at home and perform household chores is itself an act of worship, if she intends to get close to Allah by this. It is also possible for her to utilize this time with other acts of worship, like Dhikr or listening to an Islamic tape.

On the authority of Ibn 'Umar (رضي الله عنه) who said: While in a sitting with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, we counted that he said,

\[ \text{أَعْفِرْ لِي وَتَبَّ عَلَيْكَ إِنّكَ أَنتَ النَّورُ الْمُبِينُ}. \]

O Allah, forgive me and I repent to You. Verily, You are the most forgiving, the most Merciful. 190

... one hundred times.

Ponder on how the Prophet (ﷺ) took a single opportunity to perform two acts of worship:

○ The remembrance of Allah and seeking of His forgiveness and

REMEMBERING ALLAH AT ALL TIMES

Points to note regarding Dhikr of Allah:

1. Dhikr is the foundation of the worship of Allah. It is the link of the worshipper with his Creator, in all times and conditions. On the authority of ‘Aishah (ṣ) who said:

   The Messenger (ṣ) remembered Allah at all times.¹⁹¹

   This connection with Allah is life, resorting to Him is salvation, nearness to Him is success and pleasure and being far from Him is misguidance and loss.

2. Dhikr distinguishes a believer from a hypocrite, as one of the characteristics of the hypocrites is that they do not remember Allah, except a little:

   ﴿وَلاَ يَذْكُرُونَ اللَّهَ إِلَّآ فَقِيلًا﴾

   "... and they do not remember Allah except a little."

   (An-Nisaa’, 3:142)

3. Shaytaan does not triumph over the people unless they are heedless of the Dhikr of Allah. The Dhikr of Allah is an impregnable shield. A person can take sanctuary in it from the plots of Shaytaan. Shaytaan loves for a person to forget the Dhikr of Allah.

4. Dhikr is a means to happiness:

> “Those who believe and whose hearts find rest in the remembrance of Allah, verily, in the remembrance of Allah do hearts find rest.”

(Ar-Ra’d, 13:28)

5. Remember Allah continuously.

The people of Paradise will not regret anything except an hour that passed them in the world in which they did not remember Allah, the Great and the Almighty. Remembering Allah continuously, results in a continuous connection with Him.

In this regard, Imaam An-Nawawee said:

The scholars are unanimous on the permissibility of Dhikr with the heart and on the tongue for the ritually impure, menstruating women and during postnatal bleeding, by saying Tasbeeh Tahmeed, Takbeer, Tahleel, as well as Salaah on the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and other supplications. There is a difference of opinion about reciting the Qur'an.

6. Allah remembers the one who remembers Him. Whoever remembers his Lord, the Great and Almighty, He will remember him:

«فَأَذْكُرُونِيَّ أَذْكُرُكُمْ وَأَنْصَرُونِيَّ إِلَّا وَلَا تَكَفُّرُونِ»

"Remember me and I will remember you and be grateful to Me and never be ungrateful to Me."

(Al-Baqarah, 2:152)

A person would be extremely happy if it was conveyed to him that the ruler of land mentioned him his gathering and praised him. So, how would he feel if Allah, the Most High, Lord of the Worlds, mentioned him in a gathering, better than this?

7. What is not meant by the remembrance of Allah is muttering a word or words, while the heart is neglectful of what is being said and unmindful of Allah's exaltation and His obedience. So, remembrance with the tongue is undoubtedly associated with reflection and influence from the meanings of words.

“And remember your Lord within yourself, humbly and with fear and without loudness in words, in the mornings and the afternoons, and be not of those who are neglectful.”

(Al-A’raaf, 7:205)

It is necessary that the person who is remembering Allah should understand what he is saying – he should combine the remembrance of the heart with that of the tongue so that he is attached to his Lord both outwardly and inwardly.
REFLECTING ON THE BLESSINGS OF ALLAH

Constantly remember the blessings of Allah, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

Reflect on the blessings of Allah and do not reflect about Allah.

From the things that are repeated by a Muslim during the day and night, is the recognition of the favours of Allah on him - how many situations are there? How many events are there that a person sees and hears during the day and night that require him to reflect and ponder on the favours of Allah and require him to praise Him as a result?

Have you not realised the favours of Allah on you, when you are going to the Masjid and you see how the people around you have been deprived of this favour? This is especially true at the time of Salaah Al-Fajr and the Muslims are in their houses in a

---

[1] i.e. do not reflect on those things that humans cannot understand, like the reality of Allah’s Attributes etc.
deep sleep, as if they were dead.
Have you not realised the favours of Allah on you when you walk along the road and witness different sights – this one has had a car accident, that one has raised the sound of Shaytaan (i.e. music and songs) in his car and son on?

Have you not realised the favours of Allah on you, when you listen to or read the news about events occurring in the world, like famines, floods, the spreading of diseases, disasters, earthquakes, wars, homelessness and the like?

Indeed, the worshipper of Allah is fortunate – he is the one whose heart, feelings and perceptions are aware of the favours of Allah on him in all situations and circumstances.

He continues to praise, thank and glorify Him due to what he is enjoying from His bounties, like the blessings of the religion, health, prosperity or being away from evil.

In a narration, Prophet (ﷺ) said:

Whoever sees someone in affliction and says:

[126]
All praise is for Allah, the One who saved me from that which He has tested you with and Who has favoured me over much of His creation,' would not be afflicted with that trial

Allah (ﷻ) says:

"... so, remember the graces (bestowed on you) from Allah, so that you may be grateful."

(Al-A'raaf, 7:69)

[1]It should be said quietly so that the person afflicted cannot hear.
Completing the Qur'an Every Month

Complete the reading of the Qur'an every month, for the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

Complete the reading of the Qur'an every month.

The method of completing the reading of the Qur'an every month is to go approximately ten minutes early to the Masjid for the obligatory prayer. It is possible to read two pages, or four sides, in this time before the prayer. So, during the day, it would amount to ten pages, or twenty sides, and this is a complete Juzʾ. In this way, you can complete the Qur'an every month with ease.
BEFORE GOING TO SLEEP

From the Sunan of going to sleep, is:

1. Say the supplication for going to sleep:

   ﴿بِاسْمِكَ اللَّهُمَّ أَمُوتُ وَأَحْيَا﴾

   In your Name, O Allah, I die and live. 195

2. Recite the Mu'awwidhaat and wipe the body:

   The Prophet (ﷺ) cupped his hands together and Yanfuth[1] in them and then read:

   ﴿قَلِ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ﴾

   “Say: ‘He is Allah the One, the Unique...’”

   (Al-Ikhlaas, 112: 1 - 4)

   ﴿قَلْ أَعَوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ﴾

   “Say: ‘I seek refuge with the Lord of the daybreak...’”

   (Al-Falaq, 113: 1 - 5)

   ﴿قَلْ أَعَوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ﴾

   “Say: ‘I seek refuge with the Lord of...’

[1]See: Glossary of Terms, for an explanation of this word.
mankind...”"

(An-Naas, 114: 1 - 6)

... and then he would wipe whatever he was able to of his body with his hands, beginning with the head and face and then the remaining parts of the body.

He would do this three times.$^{196}$

3. The last two Ayaat of Soorah Al-Baqarah:

١١٤

“The Messenger believes in what has been sent down to him...”

(Al-Baqarah, 2: 285 - 6)

This is taken from the Hadeeth:

Whoever reads them (i.e. the last two Verses) at night they will be Kafataa for him.$^{197}$

Imaam An-Nawawee said:

The scholars have differed as to the meaning of Kafataa. It is said that it means they are sufficient for him regarding the Night Prayer and it was also said it means they are sufficient in protection from every evil, misfortune and harm. I say that both of these meanings are acceptable...
4. Recite Aayah Al-Kursee:

أَلْهَةَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيْيُمُ

"Allah, none has the right to be worshipped, but He, the Ever-Living..."

(Al-Baqarrah, 2: 225)

From the benefits of reciting this, is that: For whoever reads it, there would remain a protection over him from Allah and Shaytaan would not come close to him.

There are many supplications and Adhkaar that can be said at the time of going to sleep, like:

1. In Sahheeh Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim:

بِآسِمِكَ رَبِّي وَضَعْتُ جَنِينِي، وَبِكَ أَرْفَعْتُ
فَإِنَّ أَمْسَكْتُ نَفْسِي فَارْحَمْهَا، وَإِنَّ أَرْسَلْتَهَا
فَاحْفُظْهَا، يَمَا نَفْحَطُ بِهِ عِبَادُكَ الصَّالِحُينَ

In Your Name, my Lord, I lie down, and in Your Name, I rise. So, if You take my soul then have mercy on it.

And if You return it, then protect it in the manner you have protected (the souls of) Your righteous servants.
2. In Saheeh Al-Kalimaat At-Tayyib:

«اللَّهُمَّ عَالِمُ الْغَبْبِ وَالْشَهَادَةِ فَاطِرُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ، رَبُّ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ وَمَلِيكُهُ، أَشْهَدْ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ، أُعْوَدُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي، وَمِنْ شَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشَرِّكَهُ، وَأَنْ أُفْتَرِفَ عَلَى نَفْسِي سُوءًا، أو أَجْرِهَا إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ».

O Allah, Knower of the unseen and the seen, Creator of the Heavens and the Earth, Lord and Sovereign of all things. I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship, except You. I seek refuge in You from the evil of my soul and from the evil and\(^1\) of Shaytaan. And from committing wrong against my soul, or the like of that, to another Mulim.\(^{200}\)

3. In Saheeh Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim:

«اللَّهُمَّ أَسْلَمْتُ نَفْسِي إِلَيْكَ، وَفَوْضَتْ أَفْرِي إِلَيْكَ، وَوَجَهْتُ وَجْهِي إِلَيْكَ، وَأَلْجَاحُ»

\(^{1}\) See: Adhkaar Of The Morning And Evening, footnote 1.

\(^{200}\)
O Allah, I submit my soul to You, and I entrust my affair to You, and I turn my face to You, and I totally rely on You, in hope and fear.

There is neither refuge nor safe heaven from You, except with You. I believe in Your Book that You revealed and in the Prophet You sent.\(^{201}\)

4. In \textit{Saheeh Muslim}:

\textit{O Allah, You have created my soul and You shall take its life. To You belongs its life and death. If You should keep my soul alive, then protect it. And if You should take it, then forgive it. O Allah, I ask You to grant me good health.}\(^{202}\)

5. In \textit{Sunan Aboo Daawood} and \textit{At-Tirmidhee}:
O Allah, protect me from Your punishment on the Day You resurrect or gather together Your slaves.
To be read three times when you lie down, placing your right hand under your right cheek.

6. In Saheeh Muslim:

O Allah, Lord of the heavens and the earth and Lord of the exalted throne, our Lord and Lord of all things.
Splitter of the seed and the date stone and the Revealer of the Tawraah, the Injeel and the Furqaan. I seek refuge in You from the evil of all things You shall seize by the forelock.^[1]

O Allah, You are the First, and there is nothing before You. You are the Last, and there is nothing after You. You are Adh-Dhaahir, there is nothing above You and Your are Al-Baatin, there is nothing closer than You.

Settle for us our debt and spare us from poverty.^[204]

7. In Saheeh Muslim:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا، وكَفَانَا،
وَأَوْانَا، فَكُمْ مِمَّنْ لَا كَافِيَ لِهِ وَلَا مُؤْرِيَ.

All praise is for Allah, Who fed us and gave us drink and Who is sufficient for us and has sheltered us. How many are there that have none to suffice them or shelter them?^[205]

8. From Saheeh Al-Bukhacee and Muslim:

^[1] i.e. those things that You have total control over.
Far removed is Allah from any imperfections. (Thirty-three times)

All praise is for Allah. (Thirty-three times)

Allah is the Greatest. (Thirty-three times)

From the etiquettes of going to sleep, we should:

1. Be in a state of purity, from the Hadeeth:
   If you come to your bed (i.e. go to sleep), then perform Wudoo'.

2. Sleep on our right side:
   ... then lie down on your right side.

3. Place the right hand under the right cheek:
   When he (ﷺ) went to sleep, he placed his right hand under his right cheek...

4. Dust the bed:
   When one of you goes to bed, let him dust the bed because he does not know what comes into it before or after him. 210

5. Recite Soorah Al-Kaafiroon:

«قل يأيئها الحسرون»

"Say: 'O you disbelievers...""

(Al-Kaafiroon, 109: 1 - 6)

From its benefits:

It frees the person from Shirk. 211

Imam An-Nawawee said:

One should perform all that has been mentioned in this Chapter. If he is unable to, then he should do as much as he can from the most important supplications mentioned.

People sleep during the day as well as the night; therefore, it is possible at those times to fulfill all of these Sunan, or at least some of them, twice, as these Sunan are not specific to sleeping at night.

On the contrary, these Sunan also include the sleep of the day, as the narrations are general.

Benefits of these Sunan when going to sleep:

□ If the Muslim preserves these Adhkaar before sleeping, one hundred good deeds will be recorded for him:

Every Tasbeeh is Sadaqah, every Takbeer is Sadaqah, every Tahmeed is Sadaqah and every Tahleel is Sadaqah.²¹²

Imaam An-Nawawee said a person gains the reward as if he has paid this amount in charity.

If a Muslim preserves the practice of these supplications before sleeping, one hundred trees will be planted for him, in Paradise:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) passed by Aboo Hurayrah (ﷺ) while he was planting something and said:

'‘O Aboo Hurayrah, shall I not show you a planting better than this?'

He said:‘Of course, O Messenger of Allah’.

He (ﷺ) said: ‘Say:

«سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ، وَالْحَمْدُ لَلَّهِ، وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ، وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ»

... subhaan allaah, al-hamdu lillaah, laa ilaaha illallaah, al-laahuhu akbar...
... and a tree will be planted for you in Paradise for every one you say.  \(^{213}\)

□ Allah protects His Servant and distances the Shaytaan from him for that night and he is kept safe from evil and harm.

□ The servant ends his day in the remembrance of Allah, in obedience to Him, with trust on Him, seeking help from Him and affirming His Oneness.
CONCLUSION

This is what has been made easy in this compilation of the daily Sunan. We ask Allah to allow us to lives according to the Sunnah of the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) and to die on them.

And our last call is all praises and thanks are for Allah, the Lord of the Worlds.
